Closing New York Markets, Page 22.

YUGOSLAVIA

POGRADETZ

GREEKS ENTER KORITZA-Greek advance guards have entered Koritza (1) after a day of hard fighting, as Italian troops, principal Albanian bases.

U. S. Help to British

Everything Possible

Says at Hyde Park

Britain was near its peak.

Being Done, Roosevelt

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 22.

President Roosevelt indicated at a present conditions, American aid to

He said everything possible was bombings of English communities.

that rule could be altered to give dent said the question was altogether

If some one poins point out spe-said, it might be a different story.

But suggestions on that point, he said, must come from other people.

given to expanding American as-pass a bill or issue an order and get on World War payments, and of the possibility of using American ships to convoy vessels part way across there had been nothing on those where he would make them. He told newsmen to keep their bags packed and remain ready to accompany him.

as some of the inspections would be

He added that he would return to Washington Monday and remain there all next week, and would be in the Capital also for Christmas and

The following article by John

Cudahy, United States Ambassador to Belgium, contains dramatic episodes from a story on King

Leopold III, published simulta-

By JOHN CUDAHY.

Last January when the war was four months old, I first met King

Leopold III in one of the florid baroque salons of the royal palace in Brussels. He extended his hand cordially with a smile of genuine friendliness, and that was my official introduction as United States Ambassador to Leopold, King of the

He was dressed in field army uniform and looked the soldier, a tall handsome figure with well-set shoulders and the ruddy clear skin of the athlete. Later, sitting op-posite him in another room of the palace, I was struck by his extreme simplicity, a simplicity approaching shyness, accentuated by an air of

If deliberate pledges, solemnly executed, meant anything between worry, and yet ne w deep melancholy.

neously in Life magazine.

matters in the Government.

made in December.

He challenged any one to show

sistance to the British.

planes the next day.

too general.

being done at the present time.

press conference today that, under

AT LEAST TH' GOOD OLD

IS STILL WITH ME

Most people in Washington have The Star delivered to their homes every evening and Sunday morning.

(A) Means Associated Press.

10 Appointed

To Hear D. C.

Draft Appeals

12 Picked to Fill

Next Week

ductions next week.

Quota for Induction

(Pictures and Sketches, Page A-3.)

A 10-man Board of Appeals, vested with supreme authority in selection of Washington men for military training under the selective service program, was announced today by the national draft office, as local officials dispatched orders to 12 additional selectees needed to fill the District's quota for initial in-

Jurisdiction of the Board of Appeals covers review of any decision concerning the classification of a registrant by any draft board in the city and the power to affirm, modify or reverse the decision. Opinion of the Board of Appeals shall be final, according to regulations, unless modified or reversed by the Presi-dent of the United States.

THREE CENTS.

Greek Forces Capture Koritza, C. I. O. Elects Pursue Italians Farther South; Philip Murray Argirocastro Also Is Menaced As President

Advance Continues On All Fronts, Athens Says

ATHENS, Nov. 22.-The capture Koritza, key base in Southern lbania from which Italian col-nich hard-fighting Greek troops rst checked and then hurled back ne tide of invasion.

iphantly," said a communique, ags displayed throughout the litkingdom, and dispatches from lonika and elsewhere told of an cited populace eagerly discussing

(An Italian communique adnitted the loss of Koritza and said two Italian divisions had

Not only have its forces occupied oritza, 10 miles inside Albania, at other Greek forces are pursuing Italian army retreating pell mell rther south, near the center of e 100-mile front. Greek anouncements said.

Argirocastro Menaced. As a result of this break in the talian line, the Greeks were said be threatening Argirocastro, a cond advanced base only 30 miles om Porto Edda. Porto Edda is one the bases used by the Italians supply their Albanian army from Approaching Peak, A government spokesman said President Indicates ay not be "a single Italian left in reek territory.'

So swiftly and so deeply were the reeks said to have followed the eding wave of Italian invasion hat their trucks could not keep ess and Greek and British planes ropped food to the Greek van-

Aerial observers reported the alians were abandoning Koritza ong roads covered by Greek mounin guns and other reports said align resistance before Argirocastro as so shattered the advancing reeks virtually were unopposed he collapse was attributed to sevral demoralizing breaks through e Fascist southern front.

Italians Reported in Yugoslavia. One Italian battalion endangered by the onrushing Greek rmy was said by reports to Belgrade, Yugoslavia, from the front today to have crossed the Albanian frontier into Yugoslavia near Etenje.

(It was estimated unofficially that 800 soldiers in the battalion vere disarmed and interned. Reporting the capture of Korltza, Greeks in Belgrade said their army marched into the fallen city with a band playing.

(A frontier observer said the Greeks had advanced past Mount Zvezda, northeast of Koritza. The Italians still held some points on that rugged stronghold. The Greeks were moving north toward Pogradetz near the southern end of Lake Ochrida, which lies athwart the Albanian-Yugo-slav border.) Huge Stores Amassed. At both Koritza and Argirocastro bidding loans to nations in default ne Italians had amassed huge stores supplies for their armies. "All over the front, fighting connued throughout the day and our eneral headquarters communique arly today described yesterday's

"We took 15 guns, of which seven ere heavy artillery pieces, four nti-aircraft guns, dozens of manine-guns, many howitzers and all inds of material, also foodstuffs and iel depots. "Our aviation carried out sucessful reconnaissance flights and ombing of battlefields."

A government spokesman emphazed that the Greek offensive was o pell-mell chase, but a method-al advance. He said it was being essed cautiously on a pre-deterined plan and that the Greeks ere wary not to let themselves be rawn out too far.

Recapture of towns and positions or creating an impression," he said. At Being Forced to Surrender Belgium my is interested in victory." The Greek Home Security Min-try accused the Italians of pilging the town of Igoumenitsa hen they withdrew from it, of ooting two residents and taking thers as hostages.

Koritza and Argirocastro were the 70 springboards whence Italians unched their invasion of Greek (See ATHENS, Page A-3.)

Soviet Is Reported Advising Bulgaria

Not to Join Axis By the Associated Press. SOFIA, Bulgaria, Nov. 22 .-

The Bulgarian government was reported by a high source today to have been advised by Soviet Russia not to join the three-power axis alliance.

Official quarters and the government - supervised press made no reference to the reported advise as this little nation apparently continued to seek avenues of avoiding in-

Named Successor To John L. Lewis By Acclamation

BULLETIN.

ATLANTIC CITY (Special) .loseph Curran, president of the National Maritime Union, a surprise choice, was elected one of six C. I. O. vice presidents this afternoon, succeeding Philip Murray, elevated to the presidency. It had been expected Thomas Ken-nedy of the United Mine Workers would be the vice presidential selection. Frank Rosenblum of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers was chosen for the vice presidency vacated by Sidney Hillman.

By J. A. FOX, Star Staff Correspondent.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 22. —Philip Murray, 53-year-old mine worker, was elected president of the Congress of Industrial Organizations today as the organization's convention met in final session. Mr. Murray, a vice president of the C. I. O. and the United Mine Workers, was chosen by acclamation. He succeeds John L. Lewis founder of the C. I. O. and president for five years.

The convention rose and cheered as Mr. Lewis, who placed Mr. Murray in nomination, concluded a glowing tribute with "I give you a family man, a God-fearing man— Philip Murray. (In New Orleans, where the American Federation of Labor is in convention, President William Green said he "hoped" the selection of Mr. Murray as president of the C. I. O. would aid the cause of peace between the A. F. L. and (Asked if Mr. Murray would aid in closing the breach between the two organizations, Mr. Green ("Well, all I can say is that I

Mr. Murray, eyes wet, sat on the stage biting an unlighted cigar as the flashlights of photographers Want Murray," then swung into 'Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here." Hillman Seconds Nomination.

paraded on the stage, bagpipes wailing and drums beating. Mr. Murray, son of Irish parents, was born in Scotland. Eventually President Lewis gavsaid, was a challenge to those who

Mr. Hillman, head of a faction

I. O. administration, turned to Mr.

Hits "Shotgun" Labor Truce.

In his acceptance spech, the new

C. I. O. president criticized what he called "governmental pressure for a shotgun agreement" with the Ameri-

He called on the cheering delegates for united action and an end to "bickering" within the organi-Obviously referring to appeals by

(Continued on Page A-8, Column 1.)

Just Missed Air Attack

"It was pretty close for us. There the last war. Then I was torpedoed and survived, but the danger these

The liner brought five members

British Liner Docks;

by Germany.

identify, and added:

days is from overhead.

can Federation of Labor.

eled for order, and Sidney Hillman, president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers and also a C. I. O. vice president, seconded the nomination.

"We are giving Philip Murray not only the leadership of our organization but to the service of the Nation," said Mr. Hillman. The election of Mr. Murray, he oppose labor.

the resignation of William C. Bullitt, now Ambassador to France. The resignation was submitted November been reached for discussion of some

The President said it was perfectly true that he had asked Gen. Percifically how it could be done, he shing last week to accept the am-In response to another inquiry, he said it should not be taken for granted that consideration was being him the way planes could be built The President said he had felt faster, and asserted that you can't that since Gen. Pershing knew Marshal Henri Petain, head of the French government, from their asso-Informed there had been some ciation in World War days, the two discussion of extending credit to Joseph P. Kennedy-it has been reported he would resign as Ambassahe had not heard a thing except

The contract will enable the cor-

Cudahy Describes King Leopold's Great Grief

in a 12-mile-long column, retreated (broken arrow) along the Pogradetz-Elbasani road. Farther south, the Greek left flank was reported advancing on Argirocastro (2), one of Italy's -A. P. Wirephoto. President Reveals

General Refused Vichy Post With Deep Regret

The 80-year-old commander of the American Armies in the World War Two weeks ago Mr. Roosevelt had has been in poor health for several which he said Britain and the United States would share 50-50 in American production of planes, guns Asked today whether, in view of he recent acceleration of German more help to the British, the Presi-

Additional inspections of national defense facilities by him are sched-Plane Plant Contract uled before the end of the year, Mr. Roosevelt said, but would not state

Award of a $3.500,000 contract to the Grumman Aircraft Engineering is a lot of difference in navigating Corp. for expansion of its plant at a ship now from what it was in Bethpage, Nassau County, N. Y., was announced today by the Navy De-poration to build an addition of of the British Purchasing Commis-400,000 square feet of productive floor sion. They declined to discuss their space to the plant, the Navy said. | business here.

Pershing Declined Ambassadorship

On Advice of Doctors

on the advice of his physicians.

Mr. Roosevelt told a press conference that he had not yet accepted one else as a possible successor to bassadorship, that the general had waited for three or four days while he tried to persuade his doctors to Then, with very deep regret, Mr. Roosevelt said, Gen. Pershing sent him word that he had to take orders from his doctor instead of from the Chief Executive.

would understand each other. Britain, which would require a change in the Johnson Act for-

To a question about the status of dor to England-Mr. Roosevelt said what he had read in the papers.

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 22.-President Roosevelt disclosed today that he had asked Gen. John J. Pershing to become American Ambassa dor to France, but that Gen. Pershing had declined with deep regret let him accept.

the Atlantic, the President said Navy Lets $3,500,000

Good News at the North Pole Only Brief Twilight Separates War and Peace in London

Normal Life of City Comes to Abrupt Halt At Sunset, When the Blackout Begins

This is the fifth of a series of stories on England in wartime by Ralph Ingersoll, editor of the newspaper PM, who has just returned from a trip to the isles.

By RALPH INGERSOLL.

I told some one that the most striking aspects of London are flooded the auditorium, and the the normalcy of life by day and the dramatic suddenness with two worlds, the world of peace and the world of war, exist side by at $1,270,884.11, 63.54 per cent of the ment. convention took up the chant "We which that life stops at sundown when the blackout begins. The side separated by only a few moments of twilight. After you've goal. The demonstration took on re- been in London a little while this becomes commonplace. My first newed force as a kilted Scot band day in London I couldn't get over it.

To begin with, meeting Ben Robertson for lunch in the Dorchester was so like meeting another friend for lunch had been the first day I arrived in London five years before. In the Dorchester there is a small lobby with the porter's desk and the clerks to the right and the cigarette and newsstand counter to the left.

The lobby opens directly on a large room which is a foyer most of the day, furnished with comfortable chairs and tables. Half of it is cleared and set as a grill room of for luncheon and dinner. Still further beyond is the dining room proper, where the tables have linen on them, and it is quieter. This dining room in turn leads floor and a raised band platform and where people dance at night. The lobby, foyer-grill, dining room off to the right into another dining (Continued on Page A-15, Column 1)

Out of Chambers

For Rest of Session

Office Building.

The Senate and House voted today to leave their chambers in the Capitol next week to permit temporary repairs to be made to the roof

The Senate agreed to a request by Engineering reports have emphasized the need for repairs to the roofs over the Senate and House chambers, which were declared to be in very dangerous conditions.

A sum of $587,000 has been appropriated for reconditioning the roofs and it is planned, after temporary repairs have been made, a new roof

Visitors will not be permitted to Supreme Court chamber or the

that has been at odds with the C. Dies Plans Reports Congress Will Use Murray as he concluded: "To you, Phil, I pledge my earnest "To you, Phil, I pledge my earnest Temporary Quarters Activities in U. S. During Roof Repairs

Records of Suspected Subversive Foreign Agents to Be Seized

The Dies committee promised today to follow up its German "white paper" with companion reports devoted to alleged Italian and Japanese activities in the United States. of the building. The material set forth in its white paper" on German activities, the committee charged, was evidence

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.-The of a closely-integrated scheme of British passenger liner Western Nazi espionage, propaganda and sion in the old Supreme Court cham-Frince, which missed air bombardplanning in this country. ment at sea by 50 miles, docked today with 92 passengers, 50 of them Informed sources said that an original Senate meeting place. refugees from countries conquered Italian "white paper," similar to the 500-page document released yester- by Majority Leader McCormick day on German activities, was being calling for its sessions to be held in Cant. John Reed told of the attack on another ship, which he did not prepared by the committee and the caucus room of the Old House would be transmitted to Congress within a few weeks. Committee investigators, meanwhile, were reported actively pursuing their inquiry into the operations of persons the committee believes to be identified with the Japanese government, but the form of the report on this material has not been Publicity Destroys Effectiveness.

Chairman Dies of the committee said in St. Louis that the German report was "unique in American history" and that any Nazi effectiveness would be destroyed" by its contents. It was Mr. Dies who gave the report its "white paper" title prior fused to despair. Twenty-five years to publication.

Aides of Mr. Dies said he had decided to take charge personally of cities in the hope that activities of any agents unfriendly to the United Mr. Dies, himself, emphasized at St. Louis that he did "not intend to of whatever nationality." He indicated, however, that the white paper" his committee issued yesterday might not mean the end of the line of inquiry concerned with alleged German activities.

(Continued on Page A-5, Column 1.) London French Church

Is Wrecked by Bomb the Dutch government from Hitler.
We reported the story, but it developed that while the emissaries in Leicester Square was wrecked by had made preparations to leave a high explosive in a recent air raid

Or 63.54 Per Cent of Goal; 116,904 Have Given A total of $110,015.20 from 15,355

With today's figures 116,904 con-army of volunteer solicitors.

Pledges of $110,015

Total Now $1,270,884,

Reported at Chest

Luncheon Today

ment, $550,363.88, 64.75 per cent of and waivers of pay have been exquota; Group Solicitation, $422,- ecuted. 940.60, 63.13 per cent of quota; The 12 registrants, to whom or-Metropolitan, $283,422.20, 65.30 per ders to report for induction next cent of quota; Maryland, $10,233.71,

Many gifts are being received from persons temporarily in Washington, according to Herbert L. Willett, ir., Chest director.

Mr. Willett expressed gratification that numbers of contributors are making at least a small addition to the size of last year's subscription.

Poor Pay for Deficiency. The campaign last year ended $97,000 short of the $2,000,000 goal. The deficit, Mr. Willett said, has meant that help was denied to "some families who should have received aid, some children who should have had care in foster homes and some young people who should have gone to summer camp."

Senate and House to Move Only a willingness to increase the size of last year's gifts, Mr. Willett said, will prevent a similar deficit when the campaign closes Tuesday. Three leading citizens of Washington yesterday issued appeals on benalf of the campaign. Speak-(See CHEST, Page A-3.)

Argentine Nazis Termed Ready to Try Putsch

Majority Leader Barkley that it meet for the remainder of this ses-BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 22.-The ber in the Capitol, which, was the Nazi and Fascist fifth column ac-The House approved a resolution Nazis now are in position to at- number lists. tempt a putsch "with alarmingly good chance." The newspaper asserted the Nazis had divided the city into four zones, each with 300 to 500 adherents. These groups meet two or three times a week, the Critica article continued, and receive military instruction with modern firearms Fascist leaders operating under instructions from Rome have organized "Mussolini brigades," the article will be fabricated during the first said, which conduct military drills, session of the incoming Congress wear special uniforms within their and the job completed after that quarters and swear loyalty to Il

The Nazi and Fascists carry on attend sessions in either the old parallel activities, but each group has its own leaders, Critica declared. House caucus room, which provide It listed the names of many of the space only for members of Congress leaders and gave the addresses of

Summary of Today's Star

ments A-16-17 Serial Story C-2 Comics __ C-6-7 | Society _____B-3 Editorials __A-12 | Sports ____D-1-4 Finance ...A-21 Woman's Lost, Found D-4 Page ....D-16 Obituary ...A-14

Foreign. Greeks take Koritza and pursue Page A-1 Hitler and Rumanian chiefs confer Page A-2

North China troops, Page A-2

Japanese reported withdrawing many

Draft Appeals Board named; additional selectees chosen. Page A-1
Philip Murray elected president of Miscellany Page A-1 Nature's Children. Dies group promises further reports, plans new raids. Page A-1 Cross-Word Puzzle. Dubinsky involved in three fist fights | Winning Contract. at A. F. L. convention. Page A-2 Uncle Ray's Corner.

Army order.

Washington and Vicinity Chest on par with 1939, with $1,161,-132 pledged. Page A-1 132 pledged. Page A-1 Appeals Court will pass on Negligent Homicide Act. Page B-1 Police seek to tighten case against deferments among volunteers were Editorial and Comment. Answers to Questions. Letters to The Star. This and That. Constantine Brown. David Lawrence. Jay G. Hayden. Frederic William Wile.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22 .- The German wireless said today that Ger-

Dr. Clarence A. Dykstra, national director of selective service, notified the District Commissioners by letter today that the 10 men recommended by them for the board on November 13 had been appointed by direction of President Roosevelt. Those Appointed. The appointees and professions they represent were: Lawyers: William E. Leahy of 3325 Garfield street N.W. and Judge James A. Cobb, 1732 S street N.W. Physicians: Dr. W. Cabell Moore, 2011 R street N.W., and Dr. James . Gannon, 1915 Biltmore street N.W.

Business: John Callan O'Laughlin.

2435 California street N.W., and Earl

Godwin, 1850 Mintwood place N.W.

Citizens: Dr. George C. Havenner, 2912 Albemarle street N.W., and Dr. C. Herbert Marshall, jr., 2712 P street Labor: John Locher, 3423 O street N.W., president of the Central Labor Union of the A. F. of L., and Cecil Owen, 2109 Huidekoper place N.W., an official of the Industrial Union Council of the C. I. O. The Commissioners were advised pledges was reported today at the they may proceed to deliver notices seventh report luncheon of the of appointment and with execution Community Chest campaign and of oaths of office, waivers of pay

Will Issue Certificates. Certificates of appointment are tributors had been reached by the to be issued by Selective Service The unit totals following the of acceptances of appointment and luncheon were as follows: Govern- certification that the oaths of office

Wednesday and Thursday were 27.29 per cent of quota, and Capi-mailed today, complete the city's tal, $3,923.71, 46.16 per cent of quota of 51 men for the first call. designated for them to report were: Board No. 7, Lucian Bowen, jr., 1429 Columbia road N.W., Thursday. (Two men ordered to report from Board No. 7 on Wednesday already have been announced.) Board No. 15, Juliane E. Glover, 238 Third street S.W., and Johnny Mitchel, 332 E street S.E., both on Thursday.

Board No. 16, Albert L. Sawyer. 1517 Pennsylvania avenue S.E., Wednesday. Board No. 17, Bartlo G. Hunt, 1312 A street S.E., Wednesday; Martin R. Parrett, 712 C street N.E., Thurs-

Board No. 18, Joseph I. Fox, 650 F street N.E., Wednesday; James Nagy, 719 Fifth street N.E., Thurs-

Board No. 20, Lucian D. Loveless, 2606 Fourth street N.E., and Rocco Tanettta, 4218 Thirteenth street N.E., both Wednesday; Harry Iacone, 2611 Monroe street N.E., Thursday. Board No. 22, George W. Jones, 3010 Adams street N.E., Wednes-

First call quotas for all other local boards already have been filled. Of the 51 men named to represent the city in the initial call to service, only three were actually drafted, newspaper Critica denounced alleged according to officials at local selective service headquarters. The others tivities in a full page article yester- were among those who volunteered day, charging that Buenos Aires to be placed at the top of order

> Sendoff Ceremonies Washington's first contingent of trainees will meet at selective service Armory, Sixth street and Pennsylvania avenue N.W., at 10 a.m. Wednesday for sendoff ceremonies. Thirty-two men will make up the first group, while the remaining 19 will be similarly honored the following day. The District Commissioners have been invited to join members of the selective service executive staff in getting the trainees

From the ceremonies the men will be directed to the induction center for the Washington area at 458 Indiana avenue N.W. for final physical examinations and instructions before departing for Fort George G. Meade, Md., reception center for the Third Corps Area.

A similar procedure has been planned for Thursday. The 51 selectees have been invited Page A-10 to the opening professional hockey page A-10 game at Riverside Stadium Tuesday night as guests of the management. They will be asked to display their induction orders at the admission gate as identification. High percentage of volunteers in Page B-1 the first call group indicates physical

Page B-1 relatively low. Orders have been issued at local draft headquarters that the local boards are not to publicize infor-Page A-12 mation, general or specific, on the Page A-12 results of physical examinations of Page A-13 | their registrants.

Nazi Travel Limited

Page C-5 mans had been requested to cele-Page C-6 brate Christmas and New Year's at Page C-7 home and not to travel.

Page C-7 for long journeys, the wireless said.

meeting. His eyes were shadowed by nations, King Leopold had no cause that January morning of our first which he suffered. And yet, he re- (Continued on Page A-4, Column I.) this was given today.

ago, he pointed out, the German Army had fired the opening gun of the 1914 war on Belgian soil, but now four months of this present war had gone by and so far the country had escaped. There was States might be discredited. hope in that reflection, the King I could not resist putting my skepticism in words, but the King would

"There is no danger but the immediate danger." So April came around. A succession of some, balmy days of fleckless Italian-blue skies and star-came word from the Dutch that invasion of their country was threatened within a matter of hours. I saw the King 12 hours before the big attack came. Two emis-saries were alleged to have started from Berlin with an ultimatum to # inquiries now under way in many move against any innocent people,

"I have a list of suspects who I have every reason to believe are